Open Leadership Bingo

Discover peers' open leadership with this meet & greet activity

Directions: Travel the room and share your open leadership practices and questions with peers. Mark off the corresponding square - or write down the person's name - whenever you meet someone who…

Work open	Lead open	Licensing	Trainings	Tools
Worked on a shared document.	Led a team in shared decision-making on a project.	Can explain copyright.	Participated in Mozilla's online Open Leadership Training Series.	Uses GitHub for open projects.
Created a shared document.	Managed & delegated tasks to a contributors to an open project.	Added a Creative Commons license to a project.	Attended a Working Open Workshop.	Chats on Gitter about open projects.
Designed or co-designed for participation.	Served as a maintainer on an open project.	Added an open software license - like BSD, MIT, or MPL 2.0 - to a project.	Facilitated at a Working Open Workshop.	Maintains a social media channel or community call for an open project.
Invited contributions to an open project from from their community.	Introduced open practices to colleagues or community members.	Forked or remixed an openly licensed project.	Took a course or attended a workshop about open practices.	Uses project management software for open projects.
Contributed to someone else's open project	Can explain the benefits of openness for a project and community.	Convinced someone else to use an open license.	Led a course or workshop about open practices.	Uses another shared document platform for open projects.